

Our Principal Partners and Sponsors

HomeStart Finance

We are unique in the home loan market. We are not a bank. Our reason for being is simple: making home ownership a reality for more people in more ways. Established in 1989, HomeStart is a State Government organization focused on providing home loans for South Australians. We have a range of innovative loans that can reduce upfront costs and increase borrowing power.

Bendigo Bank

Move to a local bank.

When you move your banking to Salisbury branch you will have access to great banking products, premium customer service and a deeper satisfaction of knowing your banking is making great things happen in your community.

Drop into your nearest branch at 68-84 John Street, Salisbury or phone 8225 2800 to discover the impact your banking can have.

Bendigo's suite of products

Home loans	Every day and investment accounts
Personal loans	Credit cards
Superannuation and managed funds	Financial planning
Insurance	Business banking
Agribusiness	Online share trading

All lending products are subject to the Bank's normal lending criteria. Terms, conditions, fees and charges apply and may be varied at any time. Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Limited, ABN 11 068 049 178 AFSL/Australian Credit Licence 237879.

AMES Australia

AMES Australia has been helping new and recently arrived refugees and migrants to settle in Victoria for over 60 years. AMES Australia is one of the country's largest providers of integrated humanitarian settlement, education, training and employment services for asylum seekers, refugees and newly arrived migrants.

AMES Australia has the vision of “full participation for all in a cohesive and diverse society.”

Adelaide Cemetery Authority

The Adelaide Cemeteries Authority administers West Terrace Cemetery, Enfield Memorial Park, Cheltenham Cemetery and Smithfield Memorial Park.

The Authority is about guiding families through a challenging time, making them aware of the choices available to them, and helping them ‘find their perfect place’. We are able to assist those wishing to pre-purchase interment sites, whether that choice might be a place in a mausoleum area, lawn, garden or natural burial.

We are also proud to host regular events supporting culture, education and opening up healthy conversations about end-of-life matters.

Bhutan News Network

Bhutan News Network is the principal source of Bhutanese news about Bhutan and Bhutanese diaspora. www.bhutannewsnetwork.com

The Rotary Club of Salisbury

The Rotary Club of Salisbury is a local service organisation of volunteers who raise funds to deliver projects in our local community and help those in need abroad.

Over the past 50 years projects have included refurbishing and housing the historic waterwheel; funding the building of the Salisbury meals on wheels kitchen; re-instating the Australia Day public event for our community; being a key stakeholder of the Northern Business Breakfast; and support of many youth projects in the area.

The Rotary Club of Salisbury also supports the logistics of the Christmas parade and the Salisbury RSL ANZAC Day dawn service. We are also a sponsor of the Container of Hope project which partners with community members to send containers of medical and education equipment to communities in need.

Our club enjoys a weekly meal and meeting on Monday evenings at the Old Sport Hotel at 6.30pm – all welcome.

Signature Funerals

Signature Funeral Services is a small funeral home located in Adelaide's Northern suburbs. We specialise in offering Cremation, Burial and Natural Earth Burials for South Australians.

We are proud to be associated with the Bhutanese community and have delivered funeral services for them, which take into account their individual religious and cultural needs. We also accommodate specific requirements for each family. Having a personal relationship with community members enables us to provide funerals with empathy and understanding of their unique needs.

We look forward to continuing our relationship with the Bhutanese community.

Department for Child Protection Multicultural Services

The Department for Child Protection Multicultural Services team works with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse communities to keep South

Australia's children safe by protecting them from abuse and harm and providing alternative response to the CALD families and care support for CALD children and young people when living at home is no longer an option.

The Department for Child Protection vision is for a future where children, young people and families are safe, supported and connected.

Australian Migrant Resource Centre

The Australian Migrant Resource Centre (AMRC) is an independent, non-government, leading settlement agency servicing all of South Australia. The AMRC's purpose is to support the effective settlement and participation of people from refugee and migrant backgrounds, as they settle into their new Australian community. By assisting to build community, AMRC supports new arrivals and their new and establishing groups and communities to engage with and contribute effectively to South Australia's society, culture, economy and environment. We specialise in settlement, community development, training, and employment initiatives for young people, women and other migrants, especially those of refugee background.

Australian Refugee Association Inc.

The Australian Refugee Association is a community organisation that supports new arrivals to achieve their full potential. We work with all people who have experienced vulnerability, including refugees, people seeking asylum and culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities, to build capacity and enable them to overcome inequality.

ARA draws on its expertise and experience of over 40 years to advocate for the people and communities it serves. Through the work we do, we empower people to change their lives. Through our advocacy and representation, we influence ideas and policy. Our vision is to achieve a society that values the diversity of its people and actively provides support to ensure meaningful social and economic participation and to assist individuals and families to reach their potential

ARA works with individuals and communities from diverse cultural backgrounds, originating from dozens of countries across the world. The organisation receives federal funding under the Settlement Grants Program, and is one of South Australia's most experienced providers of settlement services. ARA's services include social support programs, casework, employment assistance, accommodation support, community development and leadership training, migration assistance and youth programs. Our predominantly bilingual and cross-cultural workforce enables us to overcome many cultural and language barriers that can inhibit access and good service delivery.

AnglicareSA

AnglicareSA makes a positive difference to the lives of more than 58,000 people each year. Through 1,800 staff and 750 volunteers delivering services and programs across South Australia, AnglicareSA supports individuals, families and communities to improve their lives, responding to immediate need and building capacity to maintain and restore dignity and control. Services include refugee and migrant settlement, tenancy services, out-of-home care, disability support services, youth work, foster care, mental health accommodation and outreach, counselling services, community and affordable housing, child care, community capacity building and low income support programs, and residential, community and home based aged care services.

Multicultural Communities Council of South Australia

The Multicultural Communities Council of SA (MCCSA) represents the interests of all ethnic groups in SA promoting their interests through advocacy, education, information, dissemination and the provision of services.

MCCSA has been instrumental in conceptualising and delivering nationally recognized programs. Their current programs cater for individuals and communities across all areas ranging from children and youth, Women, homelessness, carers, aging, health, leadership development and building community organisations. These programs support a diverse range of need within new and emerging, vulnerable and established multicultural communities.

MCCSA also offers free hall, meeting room and office space to member communities in the CBD and also operates from a northern base in Salisbury as well as delivering online resources through their successful communities' toolbox.

Vietnamese Community in South Australia

The Vietnamese Community in South Australia/SA Chapter Inc. was established in 1978, as a result of the wave of boat people who fled Vietnamese communism after civil war ended. This community organization was originally formed to address the settlement needs of Vietnamese people and advocate for socially disadvantaged people and those whose human rights have been violated.

The organization has grown significantly and now offers a range of culturally competent services to an increasingly culturally diverse client group: service target Vietnamese and non-Vietnamese people in need, with a focus on people from non-English speaking backgrounds, especially new arrival communities.